5) Travel Insurance - We urge you to consider purchasing travel insurance for your trip. In order to maintain our reasonable cost and high level of service, we do not automatically insure your trip against the adverse affects of inclement weather or other factors beyond our control. Your holiday represents a very large investment, and unforeseen circumstances such as injury or sickness, airline strikes, and family emergencies can easily affect your ability to travel. Please visit our website or contact your travel agent for further information on your travel insurance options.
